The court hereby orders the defendant United States, through the offices and personnel of the National Park Service, Department of Interior, to provide a suitable representative or representatives, not to exceed three persons, to appear in camera at the United States Courthouse in Elizabeth City on April 21, 2008, at 2:30 p.m., in order to provide the court with an examination of the maps and closure data contained in and accompanying the parties' proposed consent order submitted for the court's consideration in this case. The court will make a record of this proceeding, but the record will not be made public and will not be provided to counsel, in that it is an in camera ex parte proceeding for the court's examination of the proposal.

The record, however, will be retained and sealed for such purposes as may be necessary under law.

This 18th day of April, 2008.

TERRENCE W. BOYLE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
